MEDICINAL.

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I have found Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription of inestimable value," writes Mrs. Ellen Alma Bryan (Treasurer Memphis Century Club), of 50 Vance Street, Memphis, Tenn., "as a tonic for over-wrought nerves, or when one is troubled with general lassitude and an irritable condition, hardly knowing what the trouble is. I was advised to use it by a member of our Club and the effect on me was truly wonderful. Within two weeks I was like a new woman. I could eat and sleep as I have not been able to for months. My nerves became strong and the mental equilibrium was restored as well as the physical. Your medicine has my highest endorsement."

Don't hesitate to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., if you want good medical advice from a fully qualified physician as to your personal good health. Such letters are always answered free of charge and confidentially. A medicine which has outlasted all others for women in the past third of a century and being recommended by all those who have used it, is a good remedy to tie to. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a purely vegetable and does not contain a particle of alcohol to destroy the blood corpuscles and weaken the system. Do not permit the dealer to insult your intelligence by suggesting some other compound which he recommends as "just as good," because he makes it himself.

Senator Martin at Abingdon.

Representative Thomas S. Martin and former Representative William F. Rhea spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience in the courtroom at Abingdon yesterday afternoon. More than twice as many people as could find admittance sought to enter the courtroom. The junior Senator was given a most flattering ovation, and as an evidence of the cordial friendship existing for him in Abingdon, although this was his first visit to Washington county, he received a constant stream of visitors in his room Sunday, and yesterday the Senator and Judge Rhea were greeted with tremendous applause as they made their way through the crowd to the stand.

Senator Martin was introduced by Preston W. Campbell, who is a member of the late constitutional convention. In beginning his opening speech in the campaign, Senator Martin said that it was not his purpose to abuse or denounce any one personally, although it was his right to criticize the acts of any public official. Accepting for the sake of argument the republican claims that the present campaign is one without an issue except as to what the administration has accomplished, the Senator proceeded to discuss President Roosevelt and his "stand pat" policy. Personally, he said, Roosevelt is a menace to the American people. If the republicans win it will not be upon his personality, but upon the policy pursued by his administration. Roosevelt, the speaker declared, had violated the constitution in his dealings with both Panama and the Philippines, and that, therefore, whoever supported him placed himself in the attitude of a conspirator against morality and right. The President's policy toward Colombia was denounced as being one of robbery and violation of international integrity. Referring to the Philippines, Senator Martin said we had no right there, except such as may have been derived from the consent of the governed. Roosevelt, continued the Senator, is a so-called strenuous President, is warlike, and will exercise that proclivity whenever occasion arises, whether the cause is a just one or not. "To vote for Roosevelt," he emphasized, "you stand pat for war, robbery, and international dishonor. From day to day Roosevelt is infringing upon the rights of other branches of the government, regardless of constitutional authority. He tramples upon the rights of the legislative body." In his discussion of the tariff Senator Martin said he was not against wealth and prosperity, but he opposed a government that perpetuated monopolies that rob the young men of the country of individual opportunities. In conclusion, he denounced the President's methods in taking Mr. Cortelyou from a Cabinet position to place upon him the management of the campaign.

He said that gross indecency stamped Mr. Roosevelt as a man not fit to be President.

Judge Rhea preceded the Senator in an able speech. The two will speak the present week in Giles, Russell, Wise, and Lee counties, and Senator Martin will conclude his tour in Southwest Virginia by speaking in Bristol next Saturday night.

Suicide of a Woman.

Mrs. Clara Walsh, or Wilson, as she is sometimes called herself, who on September 26 was found critically ill from poison in the apartment of Albert Rebling, in New York, and was taken to the Fordham Hospital, where she recovered, was yesterday found dead in the Cambridge avenue apartment, with the rubber tube from a gas stove in her mouth and the gas turned on. Dr. Albert Rebling, a dentist, with whom the woman had lived as his wife, was taken ill three weeks ago at the same time as the woman, but refused to go to the hospital and died in the apartment a day later. When Mrs. Walsh was found yesterday she was partly dressed. Her death is regarded by the police as the sequel to the other tragedy. Albert Rebling was a practicing dentist in New York when he became acquainted with Mrs. Walsh two years ago. At that time she had, she said, been a widow for some years, but had no relatives in this country. She had been living in Brooklyn. After she met Rebling his business did not prosper and he took to drink. He died on Saturday night, September 24 last. On the previous Monday he brought home a flask of whisky and aologna sausage and made Mrs. Walsh eat some of the sausage with him. They both became ill, but the next night she ate more of the sausage and became critically ill. It developed that they were suffering from ptomaine poisoning.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Fixing a Date for Payment.

Charles James Fox, the famous English advocate of a generation ago, and his secretary, Mr. Hare, who lived with him, were both noted for their impetuosity, and their creditors spent much time in dunning them. One morning before daylight there was a violent ringing at their door, and Mr. Fox, going to the window, found a group of creditors below.

"Are you fox hunting or hare hunting this morning?" he asked.

"Come now, Mr. Fox," one of them called up, "tell us when you are going to pay that bill. Just set a date, and we will leave you in peace."

"All right," was the reply. "How will the Day of Judgment suit you?"

"Not at all," said the creditor; "we'll all be too busy on that day."

"Well," said Mr. Fox, "rather than put you to any inconvenience we'll make it the day after."
